Jesus

"Name Him Jesus, because He will save His people from their sins." Matthew 1:21, Holman

I met an interesting guy named Ron the other day at a swimming pool. Let me tell you about him.

After a day of meetings, Becky suggested that we go for a swim in the motel pool before we ate supper. I was surprised to find a lifeguard watching over the pool, and while Becky swam, he and I talked. He wanted to know why I was in town. I told him that I worked for the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Right then, he held up the book he was reading. It turned out to be the Desire of Ages. He had attended an Adventist church only once in his life. But from that experience he had discovered a lot about what Adventists believe, and he also discovered his favorite books: the one he was reading, Steps to Christ, and Christ's Object Lessons.

I became interested in swimming. In fact, for a week I was about as faithful a swimmer as I could be. Ron and I talked about Jesus every evening that week. We also talked about the stock market, the US election, living conditions, and a lot of other things. One of these days, I expect that Ron will worship again in an Adventist church, and I hope that when he does that church is a place that welcomes people who are growing in Christ.

Meeting Ron made me think about the opportunities all around us right now. People today are looking for hope and help. That's what Jesus offers. Surrounding us at work, at school, in our families, and our neighbourhoods, are people who need hope. You and I can offer that to them. We can talk with them about Jesus.

The Christmas season gives us an opportunity to mention Jesus in conversations. True, many people have lost touch with the Christian aspect of the holidays, but we need to keep talking about Jesus. And we need to show others that Jesus changes people, because He has changed us. That's why our witness can be most effective with those who know us best.

In 2009 our focus throughout the Alberta Conference family will be on leading people to Jesus and baptism into His Church. To do that we need to reach people through evangelistic meetings, through acts of kindness, through presenting God's Word to them. We need to think seriously about how to reach every group of people within our conference. That means that we must think creatively about how to talk about Jesus with people who have rarely heard anything positive at all about Him. Through technology, through friendship, through our worship services, we must lift up Jesus.

Lately people have been talking with me about the economy, about health worries, about problems with relationships. There are a lot of messy things in this world. But above it all is the mess of sin. We can't avoid it. Sin and its consequences are our greatest problem. But for that, heaven has a solution: Jesus.

Please join me in planning to introduce a lot of people to Jesus in 2009. And one of these days, we're going to see Jesus. He is the only reason for the existence of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. He is the hope of the world.

Christmas Greetings from the treasurer . . .

As the holiday season draws near, let us not forget the real reason why we celebrate this season. Do not let this opportunity slip by to remind the world that two thousand years ago God sent His Son to show how much He loved us. There are many in our world today who no longer accept and permit God into their lives and slowly the Christ in Christmas is losing its meaning. May He always shine brightly in our lives beyond this Christmas season.

This has been a troubling year in the financial world. Our friends in the US are facing many challenges in all areas of their economy. This has had an impact on the church activities in the US as well. In Canada our banking system has not been impacted like the US system. As of October we are still experiencing almost a 10% increase in our year-to-date tithe; however, we will act cautiously as we put together the budget for the coming year because of the uncertain financial climate.

As you contemplate your giving in 2008 I would encourage you to remember the needs at Foothills Camp and our special Evangelistic thrust for 2009. Working together we can accomplish great things in Alberta. Thank you for your faithfulness in returning your tithe and the giving of your offerings as God has blessed. In order to still receive a charitable receipt for 2008 your donation must be post marked by Dec. 31, 2008, or in the hands of your church treasurer by midnight Dec. 31.

Remember to keep Christ in your Christmas.

Parkland

A weekend health seminar featuring Darlene Blaney from the Health Ministries Department of the Alberta Conference was held in Spruce Grove, November 7-9, 2008. Friday evening saw participants having their blood pressure and body fat recorded before walking as fast as comfortably able for a mile. A graph was then created to see if we were in bad, good, or excellent health exercise-wise. It really was most exhilarating and informative. Darlene followed the exercise with a very educational and interesting talk on the benefits of water and exercise. The Sabbath morning presentation about choices we make made us all think. This was followed in the afternoon by a talk on hereditary and health hoaxes after the potluck dinner. On Sunday a cooking school wrapped up the weekend, and all enjoyed not only the presentation but the deliciously healthy full course meal that followed.

The weekend was a great encouragement to us all to maintain our body temples for the Lord in a most delightful way. Many thanks, Darlene, - you are welcome back any time!

Calgary Bridgeland

The Bridgeland Seventh-day Adventist Church saw this prophesy come to life as the church turned into “Festival City,” the place to be during the Better Days are Coming Gospel Festival. International Evangelist Pastor Samuel Telemaque was sent to Bridgeland to wake up the church members, and indeed he shook the place upside down. From October 4 – October 25, 2008, “Festival City” was on fire for Jesus. Lives were transformed as 59 souls responded to the call of salvation and were either baptised for the very first time or recommitted their lives to God in baptism a second time.

The baptismal vows were presented to the candidates.

Highlights of the Crusade

The congregation overflowed into the adjacent gymnasium as Pastor Telemaque conducted three conferences; the Prayer, Praise, and Peace conferences on three consecutive Sabbaths. At the Prayer conference, we were honoured to have Prayer Coordinator Evangeline from the Conference to assist Pastor Telemaque in intercession on behalf of the people. Another highlight was at the Praise conference, where the delegates were each asked to bring a stone and build an altar at the pulpit. The altar symbolized surrender to God and His will. Twelve boys and girls took up the challenge of memorizing all 66 books of the Bible in one week, and on Sabbath they repeated all the books of the Bible. At the Peace conference, four Pathfinders were trained as young evangelists and were given the opportunity to preach before the church.

It was such a huge success as night after night the church was full of people who came with such hunger for the word and faith that prayers would be answered. Every Sabbath morning members were sitting expectantly by 9 a.m. waiting for the meeting to begin. Every word uttered seemed to be captured and stirred in the hearts of the members like treasure. Not only was the church inspired to evangelism, but they were given tools to spread the Gospel. The church truly experienced a revival, and we are confident that the Holy Spirit continues to move in a marvelous way in Bridgeland.

To end the series, a graduation for all those who had worked hard to make the crusade a success was held. From the ushers to the hospitality committee, everyone that participated in the crusade was appreciated.

Calgary METRO Filipino Company & Calgary Southside

Southside members and Pastor Launio (far right).

God's Plan—The Best for Bruno Baseotto

“On November 8th, 2008, I made a statement to the world by being baptized.

My journey has taken me 48 years to give my life to Christ. At the age of 21, I started playing hockey. I had everything the world could offer. I had money, car, house, prestige, and fame. At the age of 33, I turned from playing and started my coaching career. A year later my world came crashing down. My wife left, and I lost everything—my family and my worldly possessions. The Lord was taking care of me, even though at the time I didn't realize it. I coached professionally in Europe for three years, after which I was offered a coaching job in Saskatoon in the WHL, where I met my present wife (happily married). I coached there for four years and also coached one year in Tri-Cities in the WHL.

After five years of coaching, I decided to get out of hockey. With the support of my wife, we returned to Calgary; we both found jobs and bought a house. When we settled down in Calgary, I felt something was missing in my life.

My wife and I often like to drive to Kalispell, Montana, about two or three times a year. We enjoy the beauty and nature it has to offer. On one of our visits, we were shopping in K-Mart. I felt a pulling. I can't explain it. Anyway, I bought a Bible and told my wife I would be in the car waiting for her to finish shopping. I started reading in the car. Genesis caught my attention about the Sabbath—it just hit me so hard about the truth and I couldn't deny it.

When we arrived back in Calgary, I started taking an online Bible Study Course with Amazing Facts. Each day I would be finding new truth. I was getting a divine education.

After much prayer, reading the Bible, and soul searching, I decided to go to the Calgary Southside Seventh day Adventist Church. I enjoyed my first visit to the church. The people were loving, caring, and friendly.

That night, a year and a half ago, we took our son to the hospital. The following evening he passed away. I don't know why he had to pass away, but I do know we have to trust and believe in the Lord. His thoughts are higher than ours.

As time passed, I still continued to read the Bible. I found comfort in God's Word. I always had a fond memory of my first visit to the Calgary Southside Church. The warmth, the caring, the loving, was something special. I returned to the church four months after the passing of our son.

Three weeks ago I was asked if I could do a Bible study lesson for Sabbath school. I said, 'Yes.' The next Sabbath, the pastor of our church asked if I would be interested in being baptised and become a teacher. I said, 'Yes' with great joy.

I truly believe that God has a plan for me, and has a plan for all of our lives. Jeremiah 29:11 is a special verse to me that I hold in my heart: 'For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, the thoughts of peace, and not evil, to give you an expected end.'”

Camrose

On May 10, 2008, Violet Delzer was baptized by Pastor Bob Burke in Camrose. Violet was diagnosed with terminal lung cancer in the summer of 2007 and given six months to live.

Because of the Godly witness of her uncle she believed that Seventh-day Adventists held to the Bible more closely than other Christian denominations and so in November she called the Camrose Head Deaconess, Rosalin Wilton, and told her she would like to study for baptism. After several months of meeting together with Pastor Burke and studying to prepare, she was baptized and voted into membership in the Camrose Seventh-day Adventist Church the day before Mother's Day with several friends and her son, Elton, in attendance.

PLAN A 2008 YEAR END GOSPEL GIFT

for 2009 Alberta Conference Evangelism or Conference Ministries of Your Choice

GIFT OF CASH

Cash is the simplest and most common form of gift and the gift is complete when the cheque is hand-delivered or mailed to the conference. The Official Tax Receipt is for the face amount of the cash donation. However, in certain circumstances, cash may not be the best way to make a gift. Please contact one of the individuals listed here to discuss the following donation options:

GIFT OF APPRECIATED SECURITIES

Publicly Listed Securities that have gained in value and that are transferred to the conference without first being sold are not subject to Capital Gains Tax. The Official Receipt for Income Tax Purposes is the value of the shares when received by the conference.

GIFT OF LIFE INSURANCE

A donor who transfers ownership of a paid-up life insurance policy to the conference, and names the conference as the irrevocable beneficiary of the policy, receives an Official Tax Receipt for any cash surrender value of the paid up policy. A donor may irrevocably transfer ownership to the conference of a policy where the donor continues to make payments, either annually or in one lump sum. Donors of these partially paid up policies receive a tax receipt for any current cash surrender value of the policy, and tax receipts for ongoing premium payments, either annual or lump sum.

GIFT OF REAL ESTATE

A gift of real estate is complete when a deed conveying the property to the charity is signed and delivered; however, the conference needs to be contacted prior to the transfer to ensure all requirements are met, such as a Certified Appraisal acceptable for purposes of the Official Tax Receipt.

CHARITABLE GIFT ANNUITY

A more mature donor who wishes to receive a periodic income payment for life, or for a specified term, and who would also like to make a charitable donation, may wish to consider a Charitable Gift Annuity.

DONATIONS FOR 2008 OFFICIAL TAX RECEIPTS
MUST BE POSTMARKED BY DECEMBER 31, 2008.

Sherwood Park

The Wildrose Pathfinders of the Sherwood Park Seventh-day Adventist Church collected 242 articles of non-perishable food during their Halloween food drive for the church's Community Services Food Bank. Since Halloween fell on Friday, the Pathfinders distributed empty paper bags in a neighbourhood near their church on Wednesday evening and returned on Saturday night to collect the donations.

The food they were given made a very welcome addition to the church's food bank as Olga Huk, Community Services director, had just receive more requests for emergency food hampers. In fact, preparing food hampers is another long-standing Sherwood Park tradition and 2008 marks the church's 25th year our Sherwood Park church community services department has been providing food hampers and providing assistance to those in urgent circumstances. In addition to helping individuals and families, they also support the Christmas Bureau, Women's Shelter, Youth Emergency Shelter, and the local Food Bank, and the Pathfinder's help makes an important contribution to maintaining this program.

Members of the Wildrose club include Cameron Bache, Soren Bache, Nathan Hamberry, Brayden Nahorney, Shaelyn Nahorney, Kerry Waller, and Sheila Waters. For the food drive, they were accompanied on the food drive by their leader, Harald Zinner, and sponsors Terry Greenlaw, Byron Nahorney, and Paw Bache.

Though a small club, the Sherwood Park Pathfinders are planning big and one of their goals is to be at the August 2009 International Pathfinder Camporee in Oshkosh, Wisconsin.

Coltyn Pugh and Pastor David

Ponoka

At the end of the Ponoka fall prophecy seminar, Coltyn Pugh was baptized on November 15, 2008. His mother, father, grandmother, and uncle were all there to witness the sacred event. Coltyn expressed to the pastor that this day was solemn and emotional because of his previous deep involvement with satanic forces. Now that Coltyn has committed his life to Christ through the waters of baptism he is rejoicing in his new freedom. Follow up studies are continuing with new contacts from the crusade.

Yellowknife

Church Welcomes New Pastor

August 11, 2008 – After being without a pastor for almost a year, the Yellowknife Seventh-day Adventist Church warmly welcomed Pastor Brad Dahr and his family. Brad grew up as a non-Christian but committed his life to Jesus Christ in 1998. Six years ago, he returned to school for a degree in Religious Studies from Canadian University College in Lacombe. When he graduated he was called to serve the Seventh-day Adventist churches in Beiseker and Drumheller, Alberta. On his birthday this year he received the call to pastor in Yellowknife. “God gives us the best gifts right when we need them,” said Pastor Brad. “While I wouldn’t turn away an iPod Touch the opportunity to serve God in Yellowknife is the best gift of all.”

The Seventh-day Adventist church has been serving the Yellowknife community for over 30 years. “My desire is to see the church be a place of refuge; a safe place amid the storm of life where people can experience freedom through God’s transforming love,” said Pastor Brad. “The next several months will be really exciting as we discover the church’s strengths and the vision and mission God has given it.” Pastor Brad, his wife Randa, and their three children are excited about their Yellowknife adventure in the grip of God.

Pastor Opens Legislative Assembly with Prayer

October 22, 2008 – Pastor Brad Dahr had the privilege of assisting with the opening of the third session of the Legislative Assembly of the Northwest Territories by asking God to bless the session. He was invited to give the opening prayer by Danielle O’Neill, Public Affairs and Communications Advisor for the Legislative Assembly of the NWT.

While meeting new people is always a blessing, the best part of the experience for Pastor Brad was when the Commissioner began his speech by saying, “Thank you Pastor Brad Dahr from the Yellowknife Seventh-day Adventist Church...” “It’s great to see our church name out there in front of the public in a positive way,” said Pastor Brad. Feeling that it was a divine appointment Pastor Brad is waiting to see how God will use this to open up other opportunities to share the Good News and the Three Angels’ Messages.

Love Came Down at Christmas

What can I give him.
Poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd
I would bring a lamb.
If I were a wise man
I would do my part.
Yet what I can I give Him
— Give my heart.
