Keynote Speaker

Carolyn—a wife, mother, grandmother, and cancer survivor—has repeatedly experienced God's grace, presence, and strength, especially in the aftermath of her unexpected divorce. A former teacher, missionary to Africa, Guide editor, and producer/co-host for Better Life Television Network, Carolyn has authored several books and numerous articles. Technically retired, she currently edits the General Conference Women's Ministries yearly devotional book and serves, along with husband Jim, as a volunteer field representative for Adventist World Radio. She is the producer/speaker of Staying Vertical, an inspirational weekday mini-program for WFMH, a country music/sports radio station in northwest Alabama. Her blended family boasts three adult children and three grandchildren. Jim and Carolyn live in Phil Campbell, Alabama, USA.
